CHARACTER TRAITS

Choose one character from the story Billie Back in Baltimore and write traits the character has. character trait is a part of a person's personality. It's what makes an individual into the kind of person they are.

Example: Kindness and friendliness

What tells you from the story that the character has these traits?

______________________________

______________________________

______________________________

______________________________

Draw a picture of the Character